"Table for Ten" Details

A reserved "Table for Ten" for $360 is essentially a discount of $2.00 per adult ticket for ordering an entire table at once. If you want a cozy "Table for Twelve" it's $432 total and a Table for Eleven would be $396. (We can't fit anymore than twelve at a table.) This way if you can hook up with your friends ahead of time (and get their ticket money) you can be sure that you will sit together at the dinner. Tickets for children are still $14.00 even if they are part of a Table, just add $14 per child to the appropriate number of adults at your table. (i.e. a Table for Ten with one child is $338). Please indicate any children on your list of names. (Adults who act like children do not count as children) Remember: These tables will be assigned starting with those closest to the stage, in the order in which reservation and payment is received. Purchasers of "Table for Ten" will receive their group of tickets at the expo and are responsible for delivering tickets to all members of their party. You must list the members of your party at right. If you are purchasing a table and unsure of one or two names, just leave them blank and fill them in when you arrive. This will give us a clearer picture of who is coming to the banquet and help to cut down on the confusion of who is at what table.
